2 Download and install your product

First download the software from the URL address quoted in the e-mail you received.

Prior to launching the installer make sure you turn off all applications using eLicenser (Steinberg and Arturia products).

If you encounter any issue at that stage, please write to registration-inquiry@arturia.com.

3 Activate your product with the Wizard

To activate your product, start the standalone version of one of the instruments included in the VCollection 3. If the product you launch was not authorized before, an activation wizard will open.

Click on AUTHORIZE, then click NEXT. Paste your activation code and click on FINISH.
